

A bristol mountain bike club for riders from all over Bristol and the South West of any age no matter where you live come along and have a fun ride. The club is completely free with no joining fee or membership, we just love riding mountain bikes with like minded people. We ride XC, trail and DH all over the UK and abroad. Local rides are generally at Ashton Court and Leigh Woods on a Sunday morning meeting at around 09:00am in North Road as we all have families so we can still be back around lunch time and earn some much needed brownie points? We also try and get at least 2 evening rides a week if and when we can. Have a look around the site and if you like what you see then join the forum and post if you fancy a ride.

No Fees - no contract, just for fun

Weekend and evening rides

Get advice on bikes, biking gear and bike maintenance

We also organize rides over the bridge to sunny South Wales to some of the trail centres, weekends away and also in Europe. It's not all riding, we will be organising social events as well, and we have our website so we can chat, plan and share our photos.

No Drop means no rider gets left behind. Ride leaders endeavour to accompany the slowest rider(s) in your group, so the slower riders do not feel abandoned. No one gets abandoned.

No Pressure means that all rides are fun, relaxed trail rides. If you feel the need to walk a section of trail because you're not ready for it, no one will force you or make you feel inadequate for not riding above your level.

No Ego means every rider is treated as an equal, no matter what their level. All riders, new and active members, newbies and experts, represent Mere Mortals on that ride. This enables other members to ride in a non-threatening way

Rules
